PETRA WIEK

Inexpressible 'Things are not all so comprehensible and expressible as one would mostly have us believe; most events are inexpressible, taking place in a realm which no word has ever entered, and more inexpressible than all else are works of art, mysterious existences, the life of which, while ours passes away, endures.' Rainer Maria Rilke, Letters to a Young Poet, 1903. Inspiration I do not want to limit myself to a specific medium or form of expression, I interpret my creativity through painting, drawing, photographing, objects and installations. Although some artists want to concentrate on just one medium and specialize in it, I feel more comfortable using a wide range of working methods and media. One does not exclude the other. The experiences of the one can be inspiring for the other medium. Cliché "All the world's a stage." It's an old cliché, but like most clichés it holds some ground. We live in a world where socially-acceptable masks, decorum and façades are an almost intricate part of the human experience and everyday life.

Also an exhibition on 2 locations from 18 August to 7 September 2010 in BaZtille Ateliers, Zoetermeer and The Hague Art Circle, The Hague. 42 artists from different disciplines participated in the project. The realization of the objective was described as follows: Collaboration can be interpreted in many different ways, both the actual, so that what you can see happen and for example also see the outcome / result that people have worked on together. The goal of the collaboration is to promote appreciation and communication between the different / multiple disciplines. Communication and conversations during working are important to achieve a good result. By working together, we are looking for new forms of expression, as it were. www.youtube.com/watch?v=B0bv7-ZOsQM www.youtube.com/watch?v=q2fp7iuLeu0
