

RISK HAZEKAMP

Risk Hazekamp is an inter-dependent visual artist and researcher. Risk is also an art educator in the broadest sense of the word and regularly assumes the position of a student. Risk Hazekamp is also a trans-person. Their work has long revolved around the complex and constantly changing relationship between body and image. Gender has been a central element, not only as a subject, but also as a theoretical framework. The questions formulated on the theme of gender were later applied to other socio-political issues. Through a combination of personal activism, intersectional thinking and analogue photography, visual thinking processes are developed to change existing systems. After studying at Willem de Kooning Academy in Rotterdam and Jan van Eyck Academy in Maastricht, Risk worked and lived in Berlin for 11 years. They showed work at many international art fairs until deciding in 2010 to no longer participate in commercial art contexts. In that same year Risk started lecturing at different art academies and is now tutor and academic advisor at StJoost School of Art & Design in the Art & Research department and the minor Arts & Humanity. Most recently, Risk graduated from the Advanced Master of Research in Art & Design at Sint Lucas School of Arts in Antwerp and participated in the Decolonial Summer School 2020 and 2021, a collaboration between the Van Abbemuseum Eindhoven and the University College Roosevelt, Utrecht University. In September 2020 they started as researcher with the Research Group Biobased Art & Design of the Centre of Applied Research for Art, Design and Technology of Avans University of Applied Sciences.

- 2021 QUEER AS GERMAN FOLK Goethe-Institut New York curator: Birgit Bosold. Queer as German Folk was originally launched in 2019 as an “exhibition on-demand” coinciding with the 50th anniversary of the Stonewall Riots. This extensive exhibition has now been converted into a compact, digital experience. This new format allows visitors to experience the queer movement past and present from anywhere in the world – furthering the project’s goals of maximum accessibility. queereexhibition.org/en Group

- 2018 SOCIAL DISSOLUTION OF THE WEST
Pennings Foundation Eindhoven, Netherlands Social Dissolution of the West is inspired by a romantic episode that took place during Hazekamp's childhood years. She follows the route of her uncle and aunt, who first met each other during the Olympic Games of 1968 in Mexico City. They were both participating for the Dutch Olympic team, he rowing the Eight for Holland, she a platform diver. Mexico City 1968. The city was afire. Ten days before the opening ceremony of the Olympic Games, student protests ended in a bloodbath. This tragic event still determines the social and political landscape of Mexico. The parallel lives of the Mexican students and the Dutch athletes could not have been of greater contrast. The project concentrates on the reversal of perspectives. It poses questions about the position of the person watching and the person being watched. Are we able to recognize the limitation of our own views? Are we able to think outside the narrative that is presented to us? How can we, today, understand the Olympic Games of 1968 from the perspective of decolonisation? What exactly happened when the Olympic flame was taken from "Old Europe" to its former colony Mexico and the organizing committee decided that "the torch should follow the course of Columbus's first voyage to The New World"?

2015 THERE IS ANARCHY IN OUR MIDST
SEA Foundation Tilburg, Netherlands
Besides analogue black and white photography Hazekamp uses other media in this presentation such as collage, drawing, sculpture and video.
There is Anarchy in our Midst stems from the residency of Hazekamp in the heart of The Dust Bowl, in Boise City, Oklahoma Panhandle and draws a parallel between the 1930's of the last century and the present. Risk emphasizes in her presentation the repetitive nature of time, forming a 'time loop' in which past, present and future mix with each other. She poses the argument that Nature and Economics go hand in hand.
