LISANNE HOOGERWERF

I consider the process of art creation as a way to shed light on the lesser known sides of the mind and as a means to externalize its shattered bits and pieces.

I consider the process of art creation as a way to shed light on the lesser known sides of the mind and as a means to externalize its shattered bits and pieces. Pictures keep reappearing in my head, scenes with no clear relationship to mundane reality, landscapes populated by strange figures and filled with peculiar edifices. These images as seen by the mind's eye appear during the mind's relaxed state (also known as the Alpha State). The appearing scenes are emptied of the hustle and bustle of everyday life: neither busy traffic nor crowded cityscapes to be seen. In externalizing these mental images, I materialize such 'landscapes' in the shape of small-scaled sets on a large table in my studio. Employing materials like spray-paint, wood, wire, sand and stone, I transform these fugacious images from a mental into a physical reality. I then photograph and/or film these settings, after which the models are ready to be recycled. The resulting pictures show deserted places including some faint notions of (earlier) human activity. For instance, there could be a billboard, a playground, or an empty swimming pool. Almost nothing happens, yet these dreamlike scenes suggest that something has happened before or is going to happen still. I feel like an explorer when I am creating these artworks. Akin to the early voyagers who made drawings and paintings of the unknown lands they encountered, I create and share the pictures of the dream worlds that I am exploring inside the relaxed states of Alpha.

	Reality and Dreams is een duo tentoonstelling met werk van Matijs van de Kerkhof (schilderkunst) en Lianne Hoogerwerf (fotografie). Verbeeldingen, fantasie en herinneringen staan aan de basis van het werk van beide kunstenaars. Beide creëren een fictieve wereld die te omschrijven is als raadselachtig, desolaat en absurd. galeriewilms.nl/exhibition/matijs-van-de-kerkhof-lianne-hoogerwerf/ Solo		www.openateliersdenhaag.nl/ Participation Open Studio Route The Hague

2022	Genius Loci Galerie Helder Den Haag , Netherlands In de expositie 'Genius Loci' kenmerkt de inspiratiebron van elk van de drie kunstenaars overduidelijk de eigenheid van hun werk. En hoe verschillend ze ook zijn qua discipline, ieder van hen probeert de individuele inspiratie naar een universeel niveau te transformeren. Vanuit de individuele achtergrond en via motivatie en verhalen wordt onderzocht en gecreëerd. Is kunst immers niet een 'constructie' die waarneming, kennis, herinnering en duiding van de menselijke geest bij elkaar brengt en resoneert in ons bestaan? Als men zich realiseert dat niets hetzelfde blijft, dan blijkt alles in voortdurende verandering te zijn. Kunst vertegenwoordigt die onderzoekende en creatieve geest. Met het verstrijken van de tijd veranderen de dingen van betekenis. Eigenlijk is het een verademing als we deze beweging aanvaarden, omdat we hiermee het 'onmogelijke' de kans geven om er toch te zijn. galeriehelder.nl/exposities/genius-loci/ Group	2017	Tentakel Rotterdam Artfestival Tentakel Rotterdam Rotterdam , Netherlands www.tentakel-festival.nl Art, Theater and performance festival in Rotterdam.
