SONA SAHAKIAN

A moment of being and nothing comes together and merge.

Sona Sahakian (1996) is a visual artist based in the Hague, the Netherlands. She graduated from the department Fine Arts at the Royal Academy of the Arts , The Hague. Her works consist of paintings, drawings, collages, photographs , installations and films (video art). In recent years she has participated in various groups exhibitions and projects. Her works are about the search for an inner experience of time, where memories are made experienceable in the shape of fixation and transformation. She strives for a fusion of past and present , which creates a dynamic and timeless dimension. The transience, the cycle of human existence - life, death and rebirth - plays an important role in this; this transforms our reality and strengthens our human consciousness. In her art she wants to stimulate people's imagination and sensory experiences in which the traces of the past are revived in the present, which remains anchored in her memory and thus enriches her personal history. In this way she wants to inspire people to make an inner journey by really feeling and discovering for themselves what the treasury of their existence is.

2024	The supervisor chooses.... Kadmiun Delft The exhibition "The Supervisor chooses..." at Kadmiun is composed of the favorite artworks of the dedicated group of volunteers who have been faithfully and enthusiastically taking on the role of host/supervisor for years. They are the indispensable silent force that contributes to the successful realization of exhibitions. The commitment of this group of volunteers makes it possible for visitors to enjoy the works and for the works to be safely exhibited. We would like to highlight the dedication and involvement of this group, not personally, but through their favorite artworks. Supporters are often true art lovers. They see many artists and artworks come by and have their own ideas about them. In fruitful collaboration with our volunteers Paula, René, Erik, Mieke, Arie, Nel, Jeroen, BernardJan, Fred and José, the works have been chosen from the Kadmiun exhibitions of the past years, and the concept of the exhibition has been developed. On display are works by: The reason why these artists and/or their artworks are favorites will be explained during the exhibition! kadmiun.nl/expositie/de-suppoost-kiest/Group

2024	NoWeapon.World Emergency La Giudecca Venice , Italy NoWeapon.world commits to promoting a radical change. Our mission is to create a world where weapons are no longer a marketable product, pushing the arms industry towards obsolescence. Through art, we aim to raise awareness, educate, and inspire concrete actions against the production and trade of arms. We firmly believe that art can be a powerful catalyst for change, capable of influencing public opinion and policies globally. NoWeapon.world aspires to build a future where global security is based on cooperation, mutual respect, and the peaceful resolution of conflicts, rather than on force and fear. A world where art not only reflects reality, but actively helps to shape it towards a more human, evolved and just future for all. www.noweapon.world/Group

2024	Ontheemd Haagse Kunstkring Den Haag , Netherlands In a world in turmoil, where humanity and nature are in disarray, many individuals seek stability and security. Due to personal circumstances, natural disasters, or the ravages of war, numerous people are compelled—often abruptly—to abandon everything familiar and comforting, plunging into a completely unknown and frequently inhospitable environment. They become displaced. This theme of losing one's home, language, recognition, safety, and shelter, as well as the loss of perspective and trust in others, has been the central focus of Suus Zweekhorst's drawings and paintings in recent years. As a curator, she now aims to present this subject alongside other artists in the Albert Vogelzaal of the Haagse Kunstkring. Following a call to the members of the association, she invited eight visual artists and various poets, theater makers, actors, and musicians to share their experiences and perspectives on the theme. This has resulted in a beautiful and diverse collaborative project. https://www.rodinl.nl/denhaag/cultuur/416770/kunsttentoonstelling-ontheemd-zet-zoektocht-naar-veiligheid-c Group

I see art as an endless process in which various images continue to transform and reappear in new forms and contexts. My art focuses on the search for an inner experience of time, the dialogue between people and nature, and the encounter with your real self. In this way, I want to stimulate and fuel people's imagination and sensory experiences. I hope that people can make an inner journey by really feeling and discovering for themselves what the treasure chest of their existence is. - 2022 Exhibition Journey The Hague , Netherlands Exhibition Travel The annual members' presentation of the four departments of the Haagse Kunstkring will this year take place in February. The exhibition of the Visual Arts and Design & Architecture departments is on show from 2 to 27 February. Many artists have chosen to depict, express or show a journey, to romantic places or exotic destinations. They traveled in their minds or fantasized about unknown destinations. And now, still not freed from the pandemic, travel is not what it used to be. It wasn't possible at all for a while, now it partially is. But do we still want it? Are we content with nostalgia for journeys made long ago? Or are we once again eagerly awaiting the moment when that postponed trip finally becomes possible? Or do we choose, perhaps more than before, the journey within, to where we are free and unlimited in our imagination? - 2022 Art which you doesn't show Kadmiuim Delft, Netherlands It is eigen aan artists to experiment, to do intensive material onderzoek and to work with diverse techniques. Dit voorwerk is often essential to come to a definitive work of art or to discover what the personal style and/or work form is. Uit dit voorwerk tsonde vaak pareltjes van werken die niet gēxposeerd worden. Die niet vizler worden voor het public, die blijven staan in de ateliers van de artists or in het stof szifren. Kunstenaar Avi Lev heeft een aantal Delftse kunst-collega's uitgenodigd om hun hidden kunstschaten aan het public te tonen. Hen te verwonderen, te amuseren of te verbazen. Kunstwerken die dus normaliter niet zijn worden nu expliciet ten toon gesteld in de expo 'Kunst die je niet laat zien'. The 'hidden' works of art are exhibited in combination with beautiful contemporary works of art from the relevant artist and are left to the viewer to discover and see the connections between the works. The group of participating artists consists of a mix of artists who have made their mark and a number of up-and-coming artists under the age of 30. the downstairs rooms for members of the Visual Arts and Design & Architecture departments. The specific medium of photography is used intensively by some of our members. But there are also many members who, although they work in other techniques, also work with photography. Some members use photography to obtain supporting material for their work, others see it as a medium in its own right and use it as such alongside their other work. The result is a varied whole.

- 2022 Virtual exhibition "Dream Living" As Jung said, "Life does not come from events, but from us". Human behavior is the endless stream of perceptions, feelings, and thoughts at both the conscious and unconscious levels, but what the eye cannot produce, the brain completes the external on an unconscious level. We create the meaning of the events around us. The meaning is and always was artificial. So, what is the reality? These works explore the inner world of the human mind based on the unconscious and the journey to the inside of one's unique perspective of what reality truly means through the eye of the beholder.

- 2022 Virtuele expositie "Beyond the Veil" Reflecting on all that is veiled, concealed, hidden, and peripheral, 'Beyond the Veil' explores the enigmatic moments frequently associated with the image of a veil. A social, identical, and cultural marker, the veil is neither limited to its history nor to its pragmatic or symbolic use. It is not necessarily physical but could be represented non-materialistically as well. The etymology of Veil is "to cover, conceal, mask, disguise (something immaterial)". There are many iterations of veils in society and cultures, in nature such as a fog or mist, and veils between worlds or realms of consciousness. A social, an identity, a cultural marker, a veil is neither limited to its history nor to its pragmatic or symbolic use. - 2021 Exhibition " The Roaring Twenties" at Pulchri Studio Pulchri Studio The Hague , Netherlands The Roaring Twenties The 1920s were a period of major changes in many areas. In the period between the two world wars, crises were accompanied by reconstruction and increasing (urban) prosperity. The roaring (or flashy) twenties were characterized by lightning-fast developments in material, political and moral areas; the rise of mass culture, consumerism, jazz music and the glitz and glamor of Hollywood. Or what about the emancipation of women and art movements such as Dada, Surrealism, Expressionism and Art Deco. Or races and record attempts such as Charles Lindbergh's first solo flight across the Atlantic in 1927. The roaring twenties have also been described as a period of freedom and the beginning of the 'modern age'. Now, mid-2021, the end of the corona time is in sight. People have been limited in their activities for a year and a half and have saved tens of billions extra. When restrictions are lifted, there may be another period of bubbling like 100 years ago. We want to enjoy again, especially now that we know what it's like to be in a lockdown. The money will start rolling again. Hopefully there will be years of economic growth again, but more controlled than before the corona crisis. Life will be different in the coming years. A different governance style, greater emphasis on the environment and sustainability, greater understanding of inclusiveness, equality and mutual responsibility. And who knows, maybe we'll get a modern-day Charles Lindbergh going to Mars, for example. In any case, let's hope that art and culture will finally get the support and attention they deserve again. For this exhibition, the walls of the Mesdagzaal are imaginary divided into panels of 1 ½ meters wide and the floors in sections of 1 ½ by 1 ½. Artists are invited to furnish these 1 meter spaces, together or alone. This exhibition was made possible in part by STROOM, The Hague

- 2021 My inner journey Loft Land of Free Thought The Hague , Netherlands Since last month there is a new exhibition in our church, namely the work of Sona Sahakian! Sona is mainly inspired by nature and the spiritual world. The work on display here shows Sona's emotional and spiritual experiences of her walks through the Armenian mountains. The soft colors and natural elements invite the viewer to a moment of rest, reflection and meditation. The film reels show images from the film Sona made for her graduation and tell a story about life, death and rebirth. The long reels of film hanging on our high wall show Sona's interpretation of the experience of time, transformation and the meeting of the past and present. It started with the incredible story of Sona's great-grandfather: After World War II, he was pronounced dead and flown back in a coffin to his family in Armenia. The family wanted to make sure it was him, so the coffin was opened before burial. While saying goodbye, they noticed that he was still warm to the touch: he was immediately taken to the hospital, where he was extensively examined. After a month in a coma, the doctors were convinced that he would never wake up again, but Sona's great-grandmother was not satisfied with that. She took him home and took care of him for 7 years, until - against all odds - he awoke from his coma. In the end he lived an active life and lived to be 86 years old.

- 2021 ALL INN Het HEM Zaandam, Netherlands Nine art academies, a hundred and seventy-five young artists, one exhibition. For the first time in history, recently graduated art academy students from all fine arts bachelor's programmes in the Netherlands are presenting their work together. ALL INN chooses collaboration over competition and collectivity over individualism. The initiative anticipates the uncertainty of an artistic career by offering young artists a broad introduction to the art world. This, on one hand, translates into a carefully constructed exhibition that highlights the dialogue between various works and current tendencies in the arts, and on the other hand, into an extensive public program curated by the young makers themselves. ALL INN was initiated by nine Dutch bachelor's degree programmes in fine arts, in collaboration with curator Rieke Vos. Het HEM is the generous innkeeper that welcomes ALL INN and its visitors and embraces them with warmth and care. The project has been made possible with the support of Mondriaan Fonds, Prins Bernhard Cultuurfonds, NN Group and Stichting Stokroos. 2020 Corona Collection The Hague The Historical Museum of The Hague The Hague, Netherlands When the coronavirus strikes the Netherlands in March of 2020, The Hague changes: supermarket shelves and streets are empty, museums, theatres, gyms and restaurants close their doors. Public life comes to a halt; The Hague is in lockdown. To record this exceptional experience and its impact on the city for future generations, The Historical Museum of The Hague started the Corona Collection (page is in Dutch). With assistance from hundreds of city residents, volunteers and photographers, a large number of objects, diaries and photos were collected. In this presentation, you will see the consequences of the first lockdown and the impact of this time on the city and its residents. The objects, photos, videos and diaries show the uncertainty, fear and sadness, but also the togetherness, creativity and (at times dark) humour that accompanied this experience. In addition to the personal submissions and diaries of city residents, a selection of photos taken by documentary photographer Sandra Uittenbogaart are also exhibited. This series of photos is the result of a collaboration between The Hague Municipal Archives and The Historical Museum of The Hague. The complete series is also be viewed via the digital data base of The Hague Municipal Archives. A special feature is the 'In times of corona' photo project by Johan Nieuwenhuize, which links photos by the artist with other recent corona-related photos. The presentation Corona Collection, The Hague in lockdown is produced in collaboration with The Hague Municipal Archives and Stroom Den Haag.

2019 Note to Self Billytown The Hague, Netherlands Cognitive dissonance is a state of mental discomfort when a person holds two or more contradicting beliefs, and it's felt especially when new evidence clashes with already-held values. We think that in today's world cognitive dissonance is more present than ever before, and therefore very relevant. Connectivity and access to more information have not lead to widespread truth, but rather to confusion and uncertainty. Instead of our views becoming more open to different ways of thinking, they have become more radical and polarised. A dichotomous way of thinking isn't representative of reality, yet we see just that becoming more prevalent all over the world. Our pre-exam show will aim to instigate this concept in exhibition format. It will showcase contradicting sides forced to occupy a shared space, along with the ensuing consequences. We want to expose people to varying, contrasting and juxtaposing artworks and activities. From silent workshops to loud game shows, to yoga exercises, to debates and cooking, we want to subject our audience to different wavelengths, to different points which don't necessarily add up to a neat conclusion. By introducing people to such a place of conflict and confusion, we want them to reflect on what means to know anything.

By having weapons buried in the earth and depicting a flying ladybug, she expresses the pursuit of peace, vulnerability, and the kindness and goodness of human existence. She wishes for a peaceful world where there is no war and violence, but positivity, strength and courage take centre stage. A better view of life and its beauty is the life force of our existence, which we must continue to breathe, cherish and pursue at every moment.

By having weapons buried in the earth and depicting a flying ladybug, she expresses the pursuit of peace, vulnerability, and the kindness and goodness of human existence. She wishes for a peaceful world where there is no war and violence, but positivity, strength and courage take centre stage. A better view of life and its beauty is the life force of our existence, which we must continue to breathe, cherish and pursue at every moment.		Fashion, and Beauty publication based in Tokyo, Japan. We showcase cutting-edge fashion, artistic photography, and luxury beauty concepts, celebrating creativity and exclusivity. Published monthly in print and digital formats, HOLLYWAY features high-end editorials, fine art projects, and innovative collaborations. Our curated issues inspire and connect artists globally.

As an artist who relies on art to process emotions, I felt the absence of such a catalog and embarked on this solo endeavor with dedication. Mood Muse is a labor of love , created to inspire and foster a sense of belonging through art. Beyond this publication , I envision a vibrant community of artists and enthusiasts finding comfort, inspiration , and purpose through this creative journey. Together , we explore the depths of emotions , celebrating the rich tapestry of human experience. Each edition of Mood Muse delves into diverse themes, welcoming artists from various backgrounds to contribute their unique perspectives.It's a |

This under the heading: "Art that you don't show!" It is typical for artists to experiment, to conduct intensive material research and to work with various techniques. This preliminary work often creates gems of works that are not exhibited. They are usually not visible to the public and remain in the artists' studios or disappear in the dust. Artist Avi Lev has invited a number of Delft art colleagues to show their hidden art treasures to the public. The 'hidden' artworks are exhibited in combination with beautiful contemporary artwork by the artist in question and it is left to the viewer to discover and see which connections can be seen between the works.

2022	Analog and online catalogue of the virtual exhibition 'Beyond The Veil' Website www.culturallyarts.com/beyondtheveil

Reflecting on all that is veiled, concealed, hidden, and peripheral, 'Beyond the Veil' explores the enigmatic moments frequently associated with the image of a veil. A social, identical, and cultural marker, the veil is neither limited to its history nor to its pragmatic or symbolic use. It is not necessarily physical but could be represented non-materialistically as well. The etymology of Veil is "to cover, conceal, mask, disguise (something immaterial)". There are many iterations of veils in society and cultures, in nature such as a fog or mist, and veils between worlds or realms of consciousness. A social, an identity, a cultural marker, a veil is neither limited to its history nor to its pragmatic or symbolic use.

| 2022 | Analoge en online catalogus van de virtuele expositie 'Dream Living' Website www.culturallyarts.com/dreamliving As Jung said, "Life does not come from events, but from us". Human behavior is the endless stream of perceptions, feelings, and thoughts at both the conscious and unconscious levels, but what the eye cannot produce, the brain completes the external on an unconscious level. We create the meaning of the events around us. The meaning is and always was artificial. So, what is the reality? These works explore the inner world of the human mind based on the unconscious and the journey to the inside of one's unique perspective of what reality truly means through the eye of the beholder.   |
| 2022 | Publication about my self-written text in Imagine Volume 2 Website imaginezine.com/sona-sahakian/ As a Declaration of Imagination, IMAGINE is a call to imagine and re-imagine the role that imagination can play in creating a better world and enhancing the quality of our lives. What is imagination to you? What does it mean to imagine? Why is imagination important? How are you applying imagination in your life and work? How does imagination help us become better people and live better lives? IMAGINE is a platform for the most inspiring answers from thought leaders on these questions and more. In today's world, we need imagination more than ever. In the spirit of John and Yoko Ono's iconic song, Imagine, released 50-yrs ago last October, IMAGINE champions the vital ideal that imagination and imagining is essential to the well-being of humanity and the future of the planet. Like Imagine, which Sean Lennon Ono calls a "Utopian anthem for peace," IMAGINE is a manifesto for a better world. |

- 2021 An article about the exhibition ALL INN Website Zaandam, Netherlands Nine art academies, a hundred and seventy-five young artists, one exhibition. For the first time in history, recently graduated art academy students from all fine arts bachelor's programmes in the Netherlands are presenting their work together. ALL INN chooses collaboration over competition and collectivity over individualism. The initiative anticipates the uncertainty of an artistic career by offering young artists a broad introduction to the art world. This, on one hand, translates into a carefully constructed exhibition that highlights the dialogue between various works and current tendencies in the arts, and on the other hand, into an extensive public program curated by the young makers themselves. ALL INN was initiated by nine Dutch bachelor's degree programmes in fine arts, in collaboration with curator Rieke Vos. Het HEM is the generous innkeeper that welcomes ALL INN and its visitors and embraces them with warmth and care. The project has been made possible with the support of Mondriaan Fonds, Prins Bernhard Cultuurfonds, NN Group and Stichting Stokroos. Programme, timeslots and tickets: Tuesday, 23rd March

For the first time in history, recently graduated art academy students from all fine arts bachelor's programmes in the Netherlands are presenting their work together. ALL INN chooses collaboration over competition and collectivity over individualism. The initiative anticipates the uncertainty of an artistic career by offering young artists a broad introduction to the art world. This, on one hand, translates into a carefully constructed exhibition that highlights the dialogue between various works and current tendencies in the arts, and on the other hand, into an extensive public program curated by the young makers themselves. ALL INN was initiated by nine Dutch bachelor's degree programmes in fine arts, in collaboration with curator Rieke Vos. Het HEM is the generous innkeeper that welcomes ALL INN and its visitors and embraces them with warmth and care. The project has been made possible with the support of Mondriaan Fonds, Prins Bernhard Cultuurfonds, NN Group and Stichting Stokroos.

My film " Everything comes and goes is the winner of the MENA Film Festival The Hague The Hague, Netherlands Jury report Sona Sahakian was able to make a connection between herself and the elements of the surrounding nature. When human relationships deteriorate during the corona and are limited by the requirements of the corona pandemic, the creator has nothing but to reattach to living things living with us on this planet. It is a victory of life and movement and a rethink of the rose that grows spontaneously in the middle of the road. Story of the film Sona: "The film "Everything comes and goes" is about the transience and the cycle of human existence. I experience the corona time as an event where everything comes and goes. Life is endless and infinite, and birth and death are only transitions. Change always takes place and destruction, destruction and decay leading to a new existence. So I want to show that you need to appreciate, enjoy and have a positive outlook on all the little things in your life, no matter how difficult the situation is."
