BAROEG MULDER

Baroeg Mulder works and lives in Den Haag. Baroeg's practice is characterised by an unranked and observational approach to his surroundings. In his work, he emphasises what is often forgotten, overlooked or rendered unimportant, and looks for ways to revive their significance, activating the poetic potential of everyday situations and spaces. Through the use of composed video, text and other framing techniques, a narrative is proposed by which these surroundings can be understood.

PROJECTS

2026 Partial Coverage The Servers Den Haag, Netherlands baroegmulder.com/Partial-Coverage You happen to be the one reading this. A partial report can only offer you partial access. Like an observation, it stays fragmented, like a piece of thought. In Partial Coverage, Baroeg Mulder makes a choreographic attempt to capture presence, and we are both witnessing and participating in it. The interchange amongst strangers, or people you know, becomes a readable act. Using broadcasting tools to fragment the surrounding spaces, Partial Coverage builds a rotating narrative that the viewer steps into for a moment. Presented at The Servers, Den Haag

2024 A piece of gum in the shape of a — KABK Den Haag, Netherlands baroegmulder.com/A-piece-of-gum-in-the-shape-of-a A paved street is the center of attention to a network of cameras, routers and TV screens. The cameras zoom in on details of the pavement, devoting their attention to observing these tiles and the archive they hold. In the installation, the camera is subverted from its conventional role, not to capture moments of importance, but to highlight the continuous, unremarkable stream of daily activity, proposing a poetic alternative of the same reality that surrounds us every day; in our house, at our work, and on the street in between. Exhibited during the Graduation Show at the Royal Academy of Art, The Hague 2-channel display, 8 stripped IP cameras, local network, found pavement tiles, various found objects, found scooter parts, drawings on A3 paper

REVIEWS

2024 Meander at Billytown Blog/Vlog Den haag, Netherlands baroegmulder.com/Flies-from-the-third-floor They were the last ones remaining after everything was taken out; the chairs, the tables, the coffee breaks, the chit-chat. In an attempt to escape the void that remained, they found the crack in between the two layers of glass, and that's where they spent their last moments, on their back, one eye on the outside world, and one on the empty office building that hosted their entire life. Part of the group show 'Meander' at Billytown.

2024 Phatic Utterances KASK Antwerpen, Belgium baroegmulder.com/Phatic-Utterances A colaborative exhibition with Heidi Holmström, exploring the topic of 'phatic utterances'. Diving into the functions of small talk and chit-chat.

Netherlands artviewer.org/meander-at-billytown/ It meanders. And if it doesn't it will. The blood crawls where it cannot go, right? And so it bab- bles. /// If an artistic practice is flexible and fluid and curious, and it often is, you could compare it to a stream of water that meanders. And the pebbles in that stream could be little ideas that get picked up along the way and with every bend they get polished and with every turn they change shape. Then an exhibition could be one of those corners where these particular stones come together and people that are curious could come there, step into the stream.

2022 Concrete Affection - a group show Blog/Vlog Cyprus soloshow.online/concreteaffection.html Concrete Affection is an offsite art exhibition that comes from a force to emphasize and frame an unexpected abandoned public space. The works presented in this exhibition have a symbiotic relationship with one another; together they respond to the space, creating an experience of order and delicacy existing in chaos and accidents. This show aims to question the inside by going outside, challenging the dynamics of authority and the value of traditional exhibiting locations. The artists involved are sparked from industrial and performative matters.
